~~The Secret to Happiness~~

Studies show that money increases happiness when it takes people from a place where there are real threats—poverty—to a place that is reliably safe. After that, money doesn't matter much. Research by the Nobel laureate psychologist and economist Daniel Kahneman showed that money increases happiness until about $75,000 annually, and after that our emotional well-being doesn't increase with income.

In fact, your definition of happiness is likely a combination of satisfaction, cheeriness, merriment, and jollity. But the way you personally define happiness will likely change from day to day as well. And that 's one of the most critical aspects of happiness. That 's also why it 's supposedly so hard to measure and quantify.
